

LATE RENT EVICTION

RENT IS LATE

LATE NOTICES

Your landlord must send 2 late rent notices before taking you to court.

Late Notice #1

5-day late rent notice must be delivered by certified mail if payment is more than 5 days late

Late Notice #2

14-day rent demand must be served

At least 14 days

COURT CASE STARTS

Notice of Petition Served

10-17 Days before court date

First Court Date

You may request an adjournment.

At least 14 days after first court date

Second Court Date

POSSIBLE OUTCOMES

Judge finds you have defenses

Landlord and tenant reach settlement

Warrant of Eviction

Case dismissed or amount due reduced

Sheriff serves 14-day notice

OR

Leave at time you agree OR

14 days

* Sheriff removes you from property

Pay total amount due any time before this to avoid eviction

The NYS Eviction Protection Act has changed the timeline in most eviction cases until August 31, 2021.

This timeline shows how evictions normally work. Please read our FAQ for more information on the eviction moratorium.